Short Bio

Dr. Amir Schreiber is a Senior Director at Bank Hapoalim, one of country's largest banks, where he leads the Cyber Risk Management department. His background includes serving as the Chief Information Security Officer & Chief Cyber Defense Officer at Isracard Group, country's leading credit card company. Beyond his expertise in cybersecurity, Amir is an innovative researcher on AI, risk management, social networks analysis, a keynote speaker at international and governmental conferences and serves as a Senior Lecturer at the Ashkelon Academic College and teaches at the Hebrew University's Center of Executive Training. Previously, he founded and managed the Internet & Mobile Department at Bank Hapoalim.