

SHLOMIT YANISKY RAVID, Ph.D.Associate Professor of Law

3 LIVNIT ST. SAVYON, ISRAEL 5652712

Shlomit.ravid@gmail.comACADEMIC PROFILE

Professor of Law and internationally recognized scholar working at the intersection of artificial intelligence, employment law, inequality, intellectual property, privacy, technology regulation, and legal theory. Drawing on an interdisciplinary academic background that includes degrees in Life Sciences, Psychology, and Law, as well as a PhD on Employees' Intellectual Property Rights in the Workplace: Theoretical and Comparative Perspectives, she combines doctrinal legal analysis with empirical, behavioral, and functional frameworks. She brings extensive experience in academic research, leadership, institution building, teaching, and student mentorship.

is Founder and Head of the Graduate LL.M. Program in Commercial Law, High Tech, and Technology and Co Chair of the Academic Committee for Advanced Degrees and Thesis Research at Ono Academic College, Faculty of Law, Israel. She has a substantial record of academic entrepreneurship and institution building, having founded and directed interdisciplinary research centers, international academic programs, comparative research initiatives, policy clinics, and recurring international conferences. Her initiatives include the Shalom Comparative Research Institute, the Eliyahu Center for Law and Technology, the Center for Working Women, and the Center for Intellectual Property Rights in the Workplace and Inventors' Rights. She has developed sustained collaborations with leading U.S. and European institutions and has extensive experience supervising Master's theses and doctoral dissertations.

Professor Yanisky Ravid brings twelve years of teaching at Fordham Law School as a Visiting Professor, alongside sustained academic collaborations with Yale Law School's Information Society Project (ISP), the NYU School of Law Center for Labor and Employment Law, Oxford, the Swiss Institute of Comparative Law, WIPO, and other leading global institutions. Her longstanding scholarship on workplace rights, inequality, privacy, and technological change is currently centered on AI governance, algorithmic ownership and accountability, comparative approaches to regulation, and the future of work.

Her research reflects the rapid evolution of artificial intelligence and emerging technologies. Recent projects include a completed coauthored article addressing employer liability for discrimination resulting from the adoption and use of agentic AI in workplace decision making; research on brain computer interfaces, AI, authorship, ownership, and privacy; empirical studies of algorithmic bias and cultural inclusion; and a new book project titled Human Rights of Employees in the AI Era (work in progress). Her scholarship has received the Visionary Article in Intellectual Property Law Award, and she was recognized as "the foremost thinker on AI and Copyright" by Judge Katherine Forrest at the American Copyright Society.

She is an elected member of the American Law Institute and serves as an Advisor to its Principles of the Law, Biometrics Project, as well as in leadership and advisory roles in several international academic and professional organizations. Her academic and public service includes founding and directing initiatives devoted to workplace equality, anti discrimination, women's rights, employee rights, and expanding access to legal and academic opportunities for underrepresented students, including scholarship initiatives developed in collaboration with international organizations such as WIPO.

RESEARCH AND TEACHING FIELDS

Artificial Intelligence and Its Legal Challenges; AI Governance and Emerging Technology; Employment Law; Inequality, Diversity, and Anti Discrimination Law; Intellectual Property and Innovation Policy; Intellectual Property, Creative Industries, and Emerging Technologies; Privacy, Biometrics, and Brain Computer Interfaces; Empirical and Comparative Legal Studies; Multiculturalism and Law; Commercial and Business Law; Legal Theory and Theoretical Foundations; First Amendment; Comparative and International Law.

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

Ono Academic College, Faculty of Law, Israel

2000 to present

Associate Professor of Law

- Co - Chair, Academic Committee for Advanced Degrees and Thesis Research, 2019 to present.
- Founder and Head, Graduate Master of Laws Program in "Commercial Law, High Tech and Technology", 2021 to present.
- Courses taught include Intellectual Property (mandatory course); Intellectual property and Legal and Ethical Challenges of Artificial Intelligence; Equality and Anti Discrimination Law; Employment Law; Research Methods; Legal Theory and Theoretical Foundations of Law; Privacy Law, Comparative and International Perspectives; Competition Law and Antitrust in the Digital Era; International Seminars on Commerce in the Digital Era, with Professor Ariel Ezrachi of Oxford Law School and Professor Samuel Estreicher of NYU School of Law; Digital Contracts and Blockchain: From Theory to Practice; Intellectual Property in the Workplace: From Theory to Practice; Intellectual Property and Advanced Technology; Ethics and Business; Civil Procedure; Feminism and Women's Rights.
- Advanced academic writing courses include Thesis Research and Writing; Theoretical Perspectives on Law: Integrating Legal Theory into Thesis Research.
- Founder and director of several centers and initiatives, including the Shalom Comparative Research Institute and Eliyahu Center for Law and Technology; a comparative international research project at the Swiss Institute of Comparative Law, Lausanne, Switzerland; the Center for Intellectual Property Rights in the Workplace and Inventors' Rights (see below).

Fordham University School of Law, New York, New York

2012 to 2026

Visiting Professor of Law, long term appointment over twelve years

- Courses taught: "Beyond Intellectual Property: Theoretical and International Perspectives";
"Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Creative Industries: Legal Challenges and Beyond";
"Intellectual Property and the Challenges of Advanced Technology: Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Blockchain"
- Supervised student research, independent studies, advanced writing projects, and scholarly work in intellectual property, artificial intelligence, and technology law.
- Developed and led a sustained program of academic activities in intellectual property, artificial intelligence, privacy, and emerging technologies, including international conferences, seminars, workshops, faculty and practitioner guest lectures, and interdisciplinary academic programs.
- Founder, organizer, presenter-lecturer, moderator, of numerous conferences and seminar series at Fordham, including in collaboration with WIPO Geneva and Oxford, addressing intellectual property, access to knowledge, artificial intelligence, blockchain, privacy, creative industries, and the legal challenges of advanced technologies.
- Founded and led the annual Professor Joel Reidenberg Memorial Series, bringing together scholars, practitioners, technology experts, and students to examine emerging questions in artificial intelligence regulation, biometrics, facial recognition, privacy, blockchain, and related technologies.
- Developed experiential and interdisciplinary programming for students, including field trips and visits to technology and innovation sites, meetings with practitioners and industry experts, and guest lectures connecting intellectual property and technology scholarship with technological practice.
- Worked with the Fordham Center on Law and Information Policy (CLIP) on intellectual property, artificial intelligence, and blockchain projects, including research initiatives, lectures, academic programming, and student supervision.
- Directed and supervised Fordham Law students in legal research and drafting, including work on a brief submitted to the Supreme Court of the United States, addressing artificial intelligence, copyright, authorship, and ownership
- These activities complemented classroom teaching by creating sustained opportunities for students to engage directly with leading scholars, practitioners, policymakers, and technology professionals.
Further details regarding these conferences, seminars, workshops, guest lectures, field trips, amicus projects, and academic programs appear below under Selected Conference Presentations and Academic Program Leadership and Selected Amicus Briefs on Artificial Intelligence and Intellectual Property.

Yale Law School, Information Society Project, New Haven, Connecticut

2011 to Present

Visiting Fellow

Postdoctoral Researcher (2011-2012)

- Conducted two open seminars for graduate and visiting researchers: "Advanced Legal Studies" and "Law and Society in Israel: Contemporary Issues," the latter in collaboration with the Slifka Center at Yale.
- Organized workshops, seminars, annual International Seminars on IP and Emerging Technologies.

- University of Urbino, Faculty of Law, Italy 2017 to 2019
Visiting Lecturer, Summer International Seminar, and Board Member, Comparative Seminar Program
 - Teaching: The Challenges of Advanced Technology: Privacy, Artificial Intelligence, and Blockchain; Privacy: Comparative Perspective; Theoretical Aspects of Privacy Law.
- British Institute of International and Comparative Law (BIICL), London, United Kingdom 2022 to 2024
Visiting Lecturer, Summer Seminar on Advanced Technology
- University of Oxford, Faculty of Law, Institute of European and Comparative Law, Oxford, United Kingdom March 2018
Visiting Researcher
- Reichman University, Israel 2018 to present
Supervisor of Ph.D. and Master's theses; Adjunct Professor, 2022 to present. Seminar taught: Global Challenges in the Digital Age.
- Bar Ilan University, Faculty of Law, Business School, Israel 2002 to 2010
Adjunct Professor
 - Course taught: Freedom of Occupation Under the Right of Property.
- University of Lausanne, Faculty of Law, Switzerland 2008 to 2011
Visiting Lecturer (unpaid)
 - Guest lecturer in Professor Karen Druckman's Comparative Law Course, "Intellectual Property and Privacy in United States Law."

ACADEMIC LEADERSHIP AND INITIATIVES

- Shalom Comparative Research Institute, and Eliyahu Center for Law and Technology
- Ono Academic College, Law School 2019 to present
Founder and Academic Director
 Conceived and established an interdisciplinary academic institute dedicated to comparative legal scholarship and emerging regulatory challenges, with particular emphasis on intellectual property, artificial intelligence, privacy, employment, and technology regulation. Direct international research initiatives, visiting scholar programs, faculty exchanges, academic conferences, and seminars, while developing sustained collaborations with NYU School of Law, Yale Law School's Information Society Project, Fordham University School of Law, the Swiss Institute of Comparative Law, the British Institute of International and Comparative Law, the International Labour Organization, and the World Intellectual Property Organization.
- Penn State Dickinson Law IP Clinic and Artificial Inventor Project 2025
Academic collaborator and supervisor of student legal writing
 Guided and supervised student legal research and drafting in connection with a United States Supreme Court amicus brief addressing copyright and rights in works generated through artificial intelligence, following earlier Supreme Court amicus work concerning AI inventorship and patent protection. The briefs advance alternative approaches to the dominant U.S. treatment of human authorship and inventorship and are listed in the Selected Amicus Briefs section below.
- Yale University, Whitney Humanities Center 2011 to 2024
Member and Fellow, Science, Technology, and Utopian Visions Working Group
 - Delivered recurring lectures on research concerning artificial intelligence, intellectual property, privacy, and technology regulation.
- Harvard Law School, Columbia Law School, and Yale Law School 2011
Member, Cyber Scholars Forum
- University of Strasbourg 2023
Ph.D. Dissertation Examiner
 Examined a doctoral dissertation concerning labor law and technological progress.

Swiss Institute of Comparative Law, Lausanne, Switzerland2001 to 2011Founder and Director, Collaborative Academic Research Project*

Established and led a comparative law research initiative supporting scholars across diverse legal fields. Selected and nominated researchers on the basis of the quality and significance of their proposed projects, facilitated research residencies at the Swiss Institute of Comparative Law, including project sponsored accommodation and institutional access, and provided substantive academic guidance and continuing supervision during and following each research period.

Center for Working Women, in cooperation with the Israel Women's Network2003 to 2010Founder and Director*

Established and led a pro bono legal and educational initiative addressing workplace discrimination, unlawful dismissal, sexual harassment, pay equity, and the advancement of women, including members of minority and marginalized communities. The Center also promoted the rights of women inventors and creators and provided equal rights education and legal assistance to underserved communities in Israel.

Center for Intellectual Property Rights in the Workplace and Inventors' Rights2003 to 2006Founder and Director*

Led a pro bono initiative assisting employees and underrepresented inventors with workplace intellectual property and inventorship matters, while advising governmental committees and members of the Knesset on related legal and policy issues.

World Intellectual Property Organization, Geneva, Switzerland2013 to 2014Expert and Academic Collaborator*

Collaborated in annual international intellectual property seminars that included scholarships for African, Ethiopian, and Arabic speaking students. Served as an expert to WIPO's division for certain countries in Europe and Asia and as an expert on traditional knowledge, contributing comparative and international perspectives on intellectual property, access to knowledge, and innovation policy.

SELECTED ACADEMIC AND PROFESSIONAL SERVICEAmerican Law Institute*2021 to presentElected Member; Advisor, Principles of the Law, Biometrics ProjectPenn State Dickinson Law, Intellectual Property Law and Innovation Initiative*Inception to presentAdvisory Board MemberGlobal IP Alliance, AILI, Copyright Association*2021 to presentBoard MemberInternational Society for Labor Law and Social Security, Israeli Branch*2011 to 2024Board MemberIsraeli Governmental Committee on Fair Trade*2011 to 2012Academic Representative and MemberGovernmental Committee for the Selection of the Israeli Antitrust Commissioner*2011Academic RepresentativeKnesset Committee on Women's Rights*2010 to 2012Consultant*

Advised the committee, its members, and the Deputy Minister on matters concerning women and students.

Israel Bar Association, Legislative Amendments Committee
Chair

2008 to 2012

EDUCATION

Yale Law School

Post Doctoral

2011 to 2012

The Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Faculty of Law

2002 to 2008

Ph.D., Direct Ph.D. Track for Outstanding Students.

Topic: Intellectual property at Workplaces,

Theoretical, International and Comparative Perspectives

Tel Aviv University, Faculty of Law

1988 to 1992

LL.B., magna cum laude

Ranked seventh in class. Dean's List every year of study.

Bar Ilan University

1984 to 1987

B.Sc. Life Sciences, magna cum laude

Average: 90.8 out of 100.

Bar Ilan University

1984 to 1987

B.A., Psychology, magna cum laude

Average: 90.4 out of 100.

SCHOLARSHIP

2026 Scholarly Output: Book Chapters, a Co-Authored Book, and Articles (see details below)

Law Review Articles and Other Scholarly Articles

1. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Nishtha Agrawal, "Who Authors Our Minds? Brain Computer Interfaces (BCI), Artificial Intelligence, and the Future of Copyright," manuscript, 2026. (Will be available on SSRN on September 9, 2026.)
2. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Jessica Cohen "Employment AI Agent (EAA) and Discriminatory Decision Making: A Multi Player Model of Joint Accountability" manuscript, 2026. (Will be available on SSRN on September 9, 2026.)
3. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Panayotis Agelarakis, "Artificial Intelligence, the First Amendment and Emotional, Safety, and Privacy Risks: When the Game Plays You," George Washington Journal of Law and Technology, forthcoming 2026. Available at SSRN.
4. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, "Generating Rembrandt: Artificial Intelligence, Accountability and Copyright, The Human Like Workers Are Already Here, A New Model," republished in the Trademark Reporter, Volume 114, Theme Issue on Artificial Intelligence (2024). Originally published in Michigan State Law Review. Recipient of the 2017 Visionary Article in Intellectual Property Law Award. Republished article
5. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Kyle Fleming, "Facial Recognition Tripartite Model: Bridging the Gap Between Privacy, Public Safety, Technology and the First and Fourth Amendments," 37 Notre Dame Journal of Law, Ethics and Public Policy 159 to 200 (2023). Available online
6. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Jonathan Fenster, "Decoding Da Vinci: A Novel Approach to Accountability and Liability for Medical Devices Operated Through Artificial Intelligence Based on the AI Work Made for Hire Model," 35 Intellectual Property Journal 37 to 70 (2023).
7. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Steven W. Schlesinger, "HTTPS://: The Right to Data Encryption," San Diego Law Journal (2023).
8. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Grace Monroy, "The Promised Land: Blockchain and the Fashion Industry," 87 Brooklyn Law Review 609 (2022). Available online
9. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Regina Jin, "Summoning a New Artificial Intelligence Patent Model," Michigan State Law Review (2022). <https://drive.google.com/file/d/1NUEZi78XdJeeW3Z08HMhCQD24Q911L/view>
10. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, "Creative Industries and the Use of Blockchain and Smart Contracts," WIPO Publications (2021).
11. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Eduard Kim, "Patenting Blockchain: Mitigating the Patent Infringement War," 83 Albany Law Review 603 (2020).
12. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, "Making Physical and Virtual Sexual Harassment Illegitimate: The U.S. #MeToo Movement and the Israeli Prevention Act," 34 ABA Journal of Labor and Employment Law, Issue 2 (2020). Available at SSRN.

13. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Sean Hallisey, “Equality and Privacy by Design: A New Model of Artificial Intelligence Data Transparency Certification as Safe Harbor,” 46 Fordham Urban Law Journal, No. 2 (2019). Available at SSRN
14. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Xiaoqiong “Jakie” Liu, “When Artificial Intelligence Systems Produce Inventions: The 3A Era and an Alternative Model for Patent Law,” Cardozo Law Review (2019). Available at SSRN
15. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Cynthia Martens, “From the Myth of Babel to Google Translate: Confronting Malicious Use of Artificial Intelligence, Copyright and Algorithmic Biases in Online Translation Systems,” Seattle Law Journal (2019). Available at SSRN.
16. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Ben Zion Lahav, “Public Interest vs. Private Lives: Affording Public Figures Privacy in the Digital Era, The Three Principles Filtering Model,” 19 University of Pennsylvania Journal of Constitutional Law (2017). Available online
17. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Luis Antonio Velez Hernandez, “Copyrightability of Artworks Produced by Creative Robots, Driven by Artificial Intelligence Systems and the Concept of Originality: The Formality Objective Model,” 19 Minnesota Journal of Law, Science and Technology (2017). Available online
18. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Kenneth S. Kwan, “3D Printing the Road Ahead: The Digitization of Products, When Public Safety Meets Intellectual Property Rights, A New Model,” 38 Cardozo Law Review (2017).
19. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, “The Hidden though Flourishing Justification of Intellectual Property Laws: Distributive Justice, National Versus International Approaches,” 21 Lewis and Clark Law Review (2017).
20. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, “To Read or Not to Read: Privacy Within Social Networks, The Entitlement of Employees to a Virtual Private Zone and the Balloon Theory,” 64 American University Law Review 53 to 107 (2014). Selected by Thomson Reuters as one of the leading law review articles in entertainment, publishing, and the arts published in 2014 and reprinted in the 2015 Entertainment, Publishing and the Arts Handbook, pages 129 to 186.
21. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Amy Mittelman, “Gender Biases in Cyberspace: A Two Stage Model, The New Arena of Wikipedia and Other Websites,” Fordham Intellectual Property, Media and Entertainment Law Journal (2015).
22. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Margot Kaminsky, “The Marrakesh Treaty for Visually Impaired Persons: Why a Treaty Was Preferable to Soft Law?” 75 University of Pittsburgh Law Review 255 to 300 (2014). Available online
23. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, “Rethinking Innovation and Productivity Within the Workplace Amidst Uncertainty,” 24 Fordham Intellectual Property, Media and Entertainment Law Journal 139 to 197 (2013).
24. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, “‘For a Mess of Pottage’: Incentivizing Creative Employees,” 43 Cornell HR Review 1 to 11 (2013).
25. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, “Eligible Patent Matter, Gender Analysis of Patent Law: International and Comparative Perspectives,” 19 American University Journal of Gender, Social Policy and the Law 851 to 880 (2011).
26. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, “A New Look at Employer Employee Relationships Through the Lens of the Patents and Creations of Employees,” 12 Labor, Society and Law 381 to 434 (2010) [Hebrew].
27. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, “Consideration in Labor Law and the Rawlsian Theory of Justice: Implications for Industrial Relations,” Kiryat Hamishpat 4 (2005) [Hebrew].

Book Chapters and Encyclopedia Entries

1. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, “Rethinking AI Generated Invention and Patent Protection,” in The Cambridge Book of Intellectual Property and Generative Artificial Intelligence in the EU, Enrico Bonadio, Peter Mezei, and Eduardo Alonso, eds. (Cambridge University Press, 2027).
2. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, “Artificial Intelligence Systems: Historical Perspectives,” in Creating an Effective Artificial Intelligence Corporate Compliance, Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, Carole Basri, Alonzo Barber, and Devika Kombacher (PLI Publishers, USA), forthcoming 2026.
3. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, “How Do Artificial Intelligence Systems Actually Work?” in Creating an Effective Artificial Intelligence Corporate Compliance, Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, Carole Basri, Alonzo Barber, and Devika Kombacher (PLI Publishers, USA), forthcoming 2026.
4. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Adam Guttentag, “Facial Recognition Technology and Privacy,” in Encyclopedia of Artificial Intelligence and the Law, Ryan Abbott and Elizabeth Rothman, eds. (Edward Elgar Publishing, 2025).
5. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Adam Guttentag, “Facial Recognition Technology: From Theory to Practice,” in Encyclopedia of Artificial Intelligence and the Law, Ryan Abbott and Elizabeth Rothman, eds. (Edward Elgar Publishing, 2025).
6. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Alec Goldstein, “The Artificial Project on AI and Patents: Three Worldwide Approaches,” in Encyclopedia of Artificial Intelligence and the Law, Ryan Abbott and Elizabeth Rothman, eds. (Edward Elgar Publishing, 2025).

7. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, “Distributive Justice in the Digital Era: An International Perspective,” in Intellectual Property, Innovation, and Global Inequality, Francis Gurry, Peter Yu, Keun Lee, and Daniel Benoliel, eds. (Cambridge University Press, 2024).
8. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, “The Beauty and the Beast: Computer Generated Works, When Artificial Intelligence Systems Create Art,” in Celebrating Asimov Legacy, Andre Ramos Tavares, ed. (Etheria Editora, 2021).
9. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Michal Shapira, “The Digital Glass Earplug: The Junction Among Artificial Intelligence, Multiculturalism in Streaming Services, Arabic Music and the Israeli Playlist,” in New Technology and Intellectual Property, Lior Zemer, Dov Grinbaum, and Aviv Gaon, eds. (Nevo, 2022) [Hebrew].
10. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, “Naming, Blaming, Shaming and Amending: What Can We Learn from the Israeli Prevention of Sexual Harassment Act, Within Physical and Virtual Spheres,” NYU Law Book, Labor and Employment Annual Conference (2019). Available at SSRN.
11. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, “Pay Gap: Blaming the Victims, Are Women Responsible?” in 67th Annual Conference on Labor, 91 to 116 (LexisNexis and Matthew Bender Press, 2015).
12. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, “Rethinking Employees’ Moral Rights, Droit Moral: A New Model,” in Intellectual Property: Interdisciplinary Perspective, Miriam Bitton and Lior Zemer, eds., 463 to 505 (2015) [Hebrew].
13. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, “The Wolf and the Lamb: Psychological Relationships in the Workplace,” in Elisheva Barak Ososkin Book, 233 to 281 (2012) [Hebrew].
14. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, “Exclusion of Women at the Intersection of Patents as a Property Right, the Workplace and Feminist Discourse,” in Law, Gender and Feminism in Israel, Daphne Barak Erez, Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, Yifat Bitton, and Dana Pugach, eds., 357 to 412 (Nevo Publishing and Ono Academic College, 2007) [Hebrew].
15. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, “Special Consideration for Inventors: Lessons from the Academic Model,” in Liber Amicorum Steve Adler, Guy Davidov and Guy Mundlak, eds., 621 to 652 (2016) [Hebrew].

Books and Edited Volumes

1. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, Carole Basri, Alonzo Barber, and Devika Kombacher, Creating an Effective Artificial Intelligence Corporate Compliance (PLI Publishers, USA), forthcoming 2026.
2. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, Intellectual Property at Workplaces: Theoretical and International Perspectives (2013) [Hebrew, with English synopsis]. Selected review: Michael Factor, “Patents and Prejudice: IP and Innovation at Work,” 9 Oxford Journal of Intellectual Property Law and Practice 944 (2014).
3. Daphne Barak Erez, Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, Yifat Bitton, and Dana Pugach, eds., Law, Gender and Feminism in Israel (Nevo Publisher, 2007) [Hebrew]. The peer reviewed volume includes 24 articles and 1,010 pages.
4. Ozer Carmi and Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, eds., Labor Court at the Crossroads (Ono Academic College Press, 2003) [Hebrew]. Includes Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, “Social and Legal Justifications for the Existence of an Independent Labor Court.”

CURRENT RESEARCH AND WORKS IN PROGRESS

Books:

1. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, Artificial Intelligence and Intellectual Property Law: Challenges and Solutions, book in progress, 2027.
2. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, Human Rights of Employees in the AI Era, book in progress, 2026. Description and chapters available at SSRN. The project addresses algorithmic management, workplace surveillance, automated decision making, employee privacy, digital twins, technological displacement, and a proposed framework for digital labor rights.

Articles:

1. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Aviad Menashe, “Artificial Intelligence in the Workplace: Liability for AI-Enabled Bullying and Sexual Harassment”, work in progress.
2. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, “Blockchain Technology: The Promised Land or the Dark Side of the Moon?” work in progress.

SELECTED AMICUS BRIEFS ON ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

1. Thaler v. Perlmutter, Brief of Amici Curiae in Support of Petitioner, Supreme Court of the United States, No. 25-449 (2025) Editor and Co-author. The brief addresses copyright protection for works generated through artificial intelligence. Coauthored with Lawrence Lessig, Christopher Mason, Jonathan Marcelinus D’Silva, Elisa Shupe, and other signatories. Directed and supervised Penn State Dickinson Law IP Clinic students in legal research and drafting. Supreme Court brief
2. Thaler v. Perlmutter, Brief of Amici Curiae in Support of Appellant, United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit (2024). Editor and coauthor. The brief addresses copyright protection for works generated through artificial intelligence. Coauthored with Ge Chen, Adam Guttentag, Lawrence Lessig, Christopher Mason, Elisa Shupe, and other signatories.

3. Thaler v. Vidal, Brief of Amici Curiae in Support of Petitioner, Supreme Court of the United States, No. 22 919, April 12 (2023). Editor and coauthor. The brief addresses patent protection and inventorship involving artificial intelligence. Coauthored with Lawrence Lessig, Christopher Mason, Osman Güçlütürk, and other signatories. Supreme Court brief

Selected Reports

1. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid and Aviad Menashe, “Artificial Intelligence Trends, Developments, and Implications for Employment and Labor Policy: Adoption of AI at Israeli Workplaces,” international report for a comparative global study of the International Society for Labor Law and Social Security (2026). Available at SSRN
2. Shlomit Yanisky Ravid, Yuda Sommer Cohen, and Micah Shapira, “The Status of Arabic Music Among Israeli Jews: A Statistical Survey,” 2019 to 2020. Available at SSRN

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Intellectual Property

- Intellectual Property (mandatory course)
- Beyond Intellectual Property: Theoretical and International Perspectives
- Intellectual Property in the Workplace: From Theory to Practice
- Intellectual Property and the Challenges of Advanced Technology: Artificial Intelligence and Blockchain
- Intellectual Property and Privacy in United States Law
- Intellectual Property and Advanced Technology

Artificial Intelligence and Technology

- Artificial Intelligence and Creative Industries: Legal Challenges and Beyond
- Legal and Ethical Challenges of Artificial Intelligence
- Intellectual Property and the Challenges of Advanced Technology: Artificial Intelligence and Blockchain
- Digital Contracts and Blockchain: From Theory to Practice
- Commerce in the Digital Era
- Competition Law and Antitrust in the Digital Era

Privacy, Regulation, and Legal Theory

- Privacy Law: Comparative and International Perspectives
- Theoretical Aspects of Privacy Law
- Research Methods
- Legal Theory: Theoretical Foundations of Law
- Ethics and Business
- Civil Procedure

Employment, Equality, and Workplace Law

- Employment Law
- Equality and Anti Discrimination Law
- Feminism and Women’s Rights
- Freedom of Occupation Under the Right of Property

Advanced Academic Writing

- Thesis Research and Writing
- Theoretical Perspectives on Law: Integrating Legal Theory into Thesis Research

SELECTED CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS AND ACADEMIC PROGRAM LEADERSHIP, 2021 TO 2026

September 2026, International Seminar, “Commerce in the Digital Era.” Founder, academic organizer, and participant. Conceived and organized the international seminar through the Shalom Comparative Research Institute and the Eliyahu Center for Law and Technology, featuring Professor Ariel Ezrachi, Director of the Oxford Centre for Competition Law and Policy, University of Oxford.

April 2026, 33rd Annual Intellectual Property Law and Policy Conference, Fordham University School of Law, in collaboration with Penn State Dickinson Law. Invited panelist, “Trademark and Frontier Technologies.” Presented “Trademark Protection as a Framework for Addressing Legal Uncertainty Surrounding Intellectual Property Rights in AI Generated Works.” The conference brought together leading academics, government officials, industry representatives, and practitioners to examine major developments in intellectual property and technology across jurisdictions.

March 2026, NYU School of Law Center for Labor and Employment Law, “Modern Employment and Emerging Challenges.” Co organizer and academic convener. Developed and organized the seminar in collaboration with the NYU Center for Labor and Employment Law and Professor Samuel Estreicher, bringing together scholars, government officials, and practitioners to examine emerging developments in United States employment law.

2021 to 2026, Fordham University School of Law, Professor Joel Reidenberg Memorial Series. Organizer, moderator, and presenter in an academic series honoring Professor Joel Reidenberg and examining artificial intelligence regulation, facial recognition, biometrics, blockchain, privacy, and emerging technologies.

2014 to 2026, Fordham University School of Law, in collaboration with the Shalom Comparative Research Institute and the Center on Law and Information Policy. Founder, principal organizer, moderator, and presenter of recurring international conferences and seminars addressing United States and comparative intellectual property law, access to knowledge, artificial intelligence, blockchain, privacy, and advanced technology. Selected programs included “Rethinking Intellectual Property,” “Current Challenges of United States Intellectual Property Law,” “Access to Knowledge,” and “The Challenges of Advanced Technology.” Collaborating scholars included Professor Joel Reidenberg, Professor Sheila Foster, Professor Olivier Sylvain, Professor Toni Fine, and other Fordham faculty and international experts.

October 2025, International Law and Technology Seminar. Founder and academic organizer. Convened an interdisciplinary program through the Shalom Comparative Research Institute and the Eliyahu Center for Law and Technology, featuring Professor Ryan Abbott, Director of the Artificial Inventor Project; Professor Daryl Lim, Penn State Dickinson Law; Professor Ariel Ezrachi, University of Oxford, with scholars from leading U.S. and European institutions.

August 2025, “Intellectual Property and Technology in the Twenty First Century: Challenges in the Next Decade,” National University of Singapore Faculty of Law. Plenary speaker and opening presenter for the patents session. Presented “AI Generated Patents: The Innovation Paradox.” The conference was jointly hosted by research centers at the National University of Singapore, Columbia University, the University of Oxford, and Tsinghua University.

April 2025, 32nd Annual Intellectual Property Law and Policy Conference, Fordham University School of Law. Invited panelist, Copyright Law and Artificial Intelligence. Presented “The Challenges of Protecting Rights in AI Generated Artworks: The United States in Comparative Perspective.”

April 2025, NYU School of Law Center for Labor and Employment Law, “U.S. Labor and Employment Law: From Basics to the Digital Era.” Co organizer, moderator, and presenter. Organized the seminar in collaboration with the NYU Center for Labor and Employment Law, the Shalom Comparative Research Institute, and the Eliyahu Center for Law and Technology. The program featured Professor Samuel Estreicher, former EEOC Chair Victoria A. Lipnic, Professor Zachary D. Fasman, with scholars from leading U.S. and European institutions.

January 2025, International Law and Technology Seminar. Founder and academic organizer. Convened an international seminar featuring Professor Ariel Ezrachi, University of Oxford and Professor Daniel Benoliel, Oxford Intellectual Property Research Centre; Professor Daryl Lim, Penn State Dickinson Law and many other scholars.

Fall 2024, “Ownership of Works Generated by Artificial Intelligence,” Artificial Inventor Project, Fordham University School of Law. Co presenter with Professor Ryan Abbott. Addressed emerging copyright and ownership questions involving AI generated works.

Fall 2024, “The Impact of the GDPR on American Markets,” Fordham University School of Law. Co presenter. Examined the extraterritorial and commercial implications of European data protection regulation for United States institutions and businesses.

October 2024, International Seminar, “Competition Law in the Digital Era.” Co organizer and participant. Organized an interdisciplinary seminar featuring Professor Ariel Ezrachi, University of Oxford, with scholars from leading U.S. and European institutions.

2024, Cyber Week International Conference, Tel Aviv University. Invited panelist. Presented “Music Creation, Artificial Intelligence, and Streaming.”

2022 to 2024, 29th, 30th, and 31st Annual Intellectual Property Law and Policy Conferences, Fordham University School of Law. Recurring invited panelist. Participated and presented in panels addressing artificial intelligence, copyright, and emerging intellectual property challenges.

Fall 2024, “The Future of Workplaces in the Digital Era,” Society for Human Resource Management. Invited participant and speaker. Addressed the implications of artificial intelligence and digital technologies for employment, workplace governance, and organizational policy.

May 2023, Advanced Seminar Series on Recent Developments in United States Law, Yale Law School, NYU School of Law, Fordham University School of Law, and the Slifka Center at Yale. Founder, principal organizer, and presenter.

Conceived and directed a multi institutional academic program addressing artificial intelligence, cybersecurity, data, equality, employment law, and intellectual property. At Yale Law School's Information Society Project and the Slifka Center, presented in "The ABCDEs of Digital and Technological Challenges: Artificial Intelligence, Blockchain, Cybersecurity, Data, and Equality." At the NYU School of Law Center for Labor and Employment Law, presented on employment law and intellectual property in the digital era as part of "Reform for the Long Haul." At Fordham University School of Law, organized and participated in "Intellectual Property and the Challenges of the Digital Era." With scholars from leading U.S. and European institutions.

2023, Microsoft Campus and Society for Human Resource Management, Three Day Conference on Artificial Intelligence in the Workplace. Invited speaker. Presented "Ethical and Legal Concerns Regarding Artificial Intelligence Systems."

June 2022, School Safety and Privacy. Invited lecturer. Presented "Privacy Regulation."

December 2021, "Ethical and Legal Perspectives on Vision AI," Fordham University School of Law. Host, opening speaker, and moderator. Developed and led a program examining legal, ethical, and industry approaches to responsible vision AI systems, featuring Professor Carole Basri and technology executive Dean Nicolls. Video

May 2021, "The EU Proposal for AI Regulation: Pros and Cons and Its Impact on Machine Vision, Facial Recognition Technology, and Biometrics." Keynote speaker and expert panelist. Examined the emerging European regulatory framework for artificial intelligence alongside scholars from leading U.S. and European institutions. Video

SELECTED INVITED LECTURES, COLLOQUIA, AND ACADEMIC PROGRAMS, 2010 TO 2021

2021, Yale Law School, Information Society Project. Presenter, "The Digital Earplug, Artificial Intelligence in Streaming Services and What We Miss."

2020, Yale Law School, Information Society Project. Presenter, "The Social Dilemma of Social Networks."

2019, Fordham University School of Law, Faculty Workshop. Presenter, "The Challenges of Ownership of Artificial Intelligence Generated Works."

2019, Yale Law School, Information Society Project. Presenter, "When Artificial Intelligence Systems Create Works of Art."

2018, Yale University, Science, Technology, and Utopian Visions Working Group. Presenter, "China's Social Credit System as a Black Mirror."

2015, Yale Law School, Information Society Project. Presenter, "The Future of Privacy in the Digital Era and the Balloon Theory."

2014, Harvard University, Columbia University, Yale University, and MIT Cyberspace Forum. Presenter, "Promoting Innovation, Revisited."

2013, University of Miami School of Law, Faculty Workshop. Presenter, "'For a Mess of Pottage': Incentivizing Creative Employees."

2013, University of Connecticut School of Law. Presenter, "Access to Knowledge for Persons with Disabilities."

2012, Harvard Law School, Berkman Center for Internet and Society. Presenter, "Rethinking Innovation and Productivity Within the Workplace."

2012, Columbia University. Presenter, "Traditional Knowledge, Cultural Expressions, and Access to Knowledge: Emerging Challenges."

2012, Yale Law School, Graduate Programs. Presenter, "Rethinking the Allocation of Intellectual Property Rights Within the Workplace."

2011, Yale Law School, Graduate Programs. Presenter, "Freedom of Association and the Right to Strike in Israel," with Justice Elisheva Barak Ussoskin, former Deputy President of the National Labor Court of Israel.

2010, Fordham University School of Law. Presenter and guest lecturer for international visiting scholars and graduate students, "Ownership of Intellectual Property Products: A Comparative Perspective."

Selected Academic Program Leadership and Presenting

2021, University of Oxford Faculty of Law and Ono Academic College. Co organizer, participant, and presenter, "Competition Law in the Digital Era," developed with Professor Ariel Ezrachi, the Shalom Comparative Research Institute, and the Eliyahu Center for Law and Technology, with scholars from leading U.S. and European institutions.

2021, Fordham University School of Law, Professor Joel Reidenberg Memorial Series. Organizer and presenter, "The New EU Proposal to Regulate Artificial Intelligence and Its Impact on Biometrics, Facial Recognition, and Machine Vision."

2020, Fordham University School of Law, Professor Joel Reidenberg Memorial Series. Organizer and presenter in a law and technology series addressing “Blockchain Platforms, Benefits and Risks” and “The Challenge of Facial Recognition.”

2020, Fordham University School of Law and Center on Law and Information Policy. Presenter, “The Chinese Social Credit System” and “Family Bots and Privacy.”

SELECTED RECURRING INVITED PRESENTATIONS AND INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE LEADERSHIP, 2009 TO 2021

2011 to 2021, Yale University, Information Society Project and Science, Technology, and Utopian Visions Working Group. Recurring invited presenter on intellectual property, privacy, digital technologies, and emerging legal and regulatory challenges.

2010 to 2021, Fordham University School of Law. Recurring invited presenter in the Summer Program, annual academic roundtables, the Intellectual Property Institute, and the Center on Law and Information Policy. Presentations addressed intellectual property, artificial intelligence, blockchain, and emerging technologies.

2010 to 2015, University of Lausanne Faculty of Law, Switzerland. Recurring guest lecturer and presenter, “Intellectual Property and Privacy,” in the American Law course.

2017 to 2019, University of Urbino Faculty of Law, Italy. Recurring invited presenter in the International Summer Seminar on advanced technology, intellectual property, and privacy.

2012 to 2019, Yale Law School, Information Society Project, in collaboration with the Shalom Comparative Research Institute. Founder, principal organizer, moderator, and presenter of a recurring international conference and seminar series addressing access to knowledge, distributive justice, privacy, artificial intelligence, machine learning, robotics, and emerging technologies. Selected programs: 2012, “Access to Knowledge, Recent Developments,” presenter, “Access to Intellectual Property Rights for Women”; 2014, “Beyond Intellectual Property,” presenter, “Intellectual Property and the Distributive Justice Rationale”; 2015, “The Future of Privacy in the Digital Era,” presenter, “Privacy in the Workplace, Theoretical Perspectives”; 2016, “The Challenges of Advanced Technology in the Digital Era, Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning,” presenter, “Generating Rembrandt, Artificial Intelligence, Accountability, and Copyright” and “When Artificial Intelligence Systems Produce Inventions, The 3A Era and an Alternative Patent Law Model”; 2017 to 2019, annual conferences on artificial intelligence, robotics, intellectual property, and advanced technology, organizer, moderator, and presenter. Participants included scholars from Yale Law School, Yale School of Medicine, Harvard Law School, the University of Miami, Leiden University, and other leading institutions, including Professors Jack Balkin, Bonnie Kaplan, Cristina Spiesel, Stephen Wizner, Patricia Abril, and Lauren Scholz.

2010 to 2018, Swiss Institute of Comparative Law and University of Lausanne, Switzerland, in collaboration with the Shalom Comparative Research Institute. Founder, academic organizer, moderator, and presenter of recurring international seminars in comparative law, employment law, equality, multiculturalism, religion, and legal institutions. Selected programs included: 2010, intensive international program on law and religion, presenter, “Legal Regulation of Religion in the Workplace and Education”; 2013, “The Protection of Employees’ Unions, A Comparative Study,” organizer and moderator; 2014, “The Gender Pay Gap, A Comparative Study,” organizer and moderator; 2015, “The Right to Strike, A Comparative Study,” organizer and moderator; 2016, “Law and Religions in Multicultural Societies,” organizer and presenter, “Law and Religion in Israeli Workplaces”; 2017, “The Challenges of Multicultural Nations,” organizer and moderator; 2018, Annual International Seminar on Comparative Law, organizer and moderator.

2014 to 2019, Fordham University School of Law. Co organizer, moderator, and presenter in a recurring international conference and seminar series addressing United States and comparative intellectual property law, access to knowledge, and the legal challenges of emerging technologies. Selected programs included 2015, “Rethinking Intellectual Property,” moderator and presenter, with Professor Joel Reidenberg and scholars from Fordham University School of Law and John Jay College; 2016, “Current Challenges of United States Intellectual Property Law,” moderator and presenter; 2017, “Access to Knowledge,” moderator and presenter; 2018, “Access to Knowledge,” organizer and presenter; 2019, “The Challenges of Advanced Technology,” organizer and presenter. The series featured Professors Joel Reidenberg, Sheila Foster, Olivier Sylvain, Toni Fine, and other Fordham faculty and international experts.

2011, World Intellectual Property Organization. Founder, principal organizer, and presenter, International Conference on “Intellectual Property Law and Developments, The Road Ahead, Traditional Knowledge and Access to Knowledge.” Presented “The Unresolved Problems of Traditional Knowledge.” The conference featured Professors Shubha Ghosh, Sheila Foster, Ruth Lapidoth, Sharon Le Gall, and other international scholars.

2014 to 2016, Ono Academic College Faculty of Law. Founder, principal organizer, moderator, and presenter of the recurring international conference series “New Venues for Equality,” featuring Professor Catharine MacKinnon, Harvard Law School and University of Michigan Law School; Professor Samuel Estreicher, NYU School of Law; Professor Sheila Foster, Fordham University School of Law; and Professor Karen Druckman, University of Lausanne and the Swiss Institute of Comparative Law.

2009 to 2019, International Conferences on intellectual property, workplace rights, equality, regulation, and competition. Founder, academic organizer, moderator, and presenter. Selected programs included “IP in Japan,” “IP at Work, To Whom Does the Patent Belong?” and “Rethinking Competition Law in the Digital Era,” featuring Professor Ariel Ezrachi, Director of the Oxford Centre for Competition Law and Policy.

2020 to 2021, University of Oxford, Professor Ariel Ezrachi, and Ono Academic College. Co organizer and presenter, international seminar series, “Competition Law in the Digital Era.”

2018 to 2021, Fordham University School of Law, Annual Intellectual Property Law and Policy Conferences. Recurring invited panelist and presenter on artificial intelligence, copyright, ownership, and accountability. Selected presentations included “Artificial Intelligence Ownership and Accountability, A New Model for Human Like Creators” and panels addressing rights in works generated by artificial intelligence.

2019, Osgoode University School of Law, Intellectual Property Center. Opening session presenter, “Intellectual Property Laws and the Challenges of Artificial Intelligence Systems,” at the international conference “Bracing the Impact, Artificial Intelligence.”

2016 to 2017, Yale Law School, Information Society Project. Recurring invited presenter on artificial intelligence and intellectual property. Selected presentations included “Artificial Intelligence and Intellectual Property Rights, Who Is the Owner?”; “Robots, Artificial Intelligence, and Intellectual Property Rights in the 3A Era”; and “Generating Rembrandt, Three Models of Artificial Intelligence and Intellectual Property.”

2015 to 2024, NYU School of Law, Annual Conference on Labor. Moderator and presenter in international perspectives sessions at the conferences “Who Is an Employee and Who Is the Employer?” and “Dispute Resolution.”

2015, Columbia University and Ono Academic College, Conference on Public and Private Regulation. Session chair and presenter, “Housing Discrimination,” at a conference featuring Columbia Law School faculty, Israeli Supreme Court justices, and leading scholars and regulators.

2015, World Intellectual Property Organization, Geneva. Opening speaker and presenter, “Promoting Innovation, A Comparative Approach Following the Chinese Reform,” at the seminar on Current Issues in Intellectual Property Rights.

2014, University of Cambridge Faculty of Law, Fordham Intellectual Property Law Institute Annual Conference. Presenter, “The Flourishing Role of Distributive Justice in Multilateral Intellectual Property Agreements.”

2012 to 2014, World Intellectual Property Organization, Geneva. Recurring invited presenter on access to knowledge, innovation policy, and distributive justice in international intellectual property law.

2012, Yale Law School, Information Society Project Fifteenth Anniversary Conference. Presenter, “Access to Knowledge for Persons with Visual Impairments.”

2010 to 2011, Fordham University School of Law. Invited presenter on dispute resolution in intellectual property matters and comparative developments in United States intellectual property law.

HONORS AND AWARDS

2017, Visionary Article in Intellectual Property Law Award. “Generating Rembrandt: Artificial Intelligence, Accountability and Copyright, A New Model of AI Systems as Workers,” was nominated by a Michigan State University faculty panel and editors as the 2017 Visionary Article in Intellectual Property Law and received an award.

2015, Thomson Reuters Selection. “To Read or Not to Read: Privacy Within Social Networks, the Entitlement of Employees to a Virtual Private Zone and the Balloon Theory” was judged one of the leading law review articles related to entertainment, publishing, and the arts published in 2014 and selected for inclusion in the 2015 Entertainment, Publishing and the Arts Handbook.

2006, Outstanding Researcher Prize in Memory of Professor Gadi Harel. Awarded for the article “Exclusion of Women at the Intersection of Patents as a Property Right, the Workplace and Feminist Discourse.”

SELECTED RESEARCH GRANTS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

2011, University of Modena, Modena, Italy. Research grant.

2010, Women and Law Program, Washington, D.C. Grant.

American University, Washington College of Law. Grant.

2008 and 2009, Swiss Institute of Comparative Law, Lausanne, Switzerland. Research grants.

2007, Van Calker Fund. Research grant awarded to selected scholars from universities around the world to conduct research on employees’ ownership rights in inventions and creations at the Swiss Institute of Comparative Law, Lausanne, Switzerland.

2006 to 2015, World Intellectual Property Organization, Geneva, Switzerland. Full scholarships to attend and lecture at seminars in 2006, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, and 2015.

2006, Silbert Center, Hebrew University of Jerusalem. Grant supporting Ph.D. research.

2006, Lafer Center for Women's and Gender Studies, Hebrew University of Jerusalem. Scholarship for outstanding researchers.

2006, Minerva Center for Human Rights, Hebrew University of Jerusalem. Grant supporting Ph.D. research.